Any change of the legal form in which assets are invested or reinvested shall not affect their character as investment in the sense of this Agreement.

2. The term "Investor" means:

a) any natural person having Moroccan or Vietnamese nationality under the law of the Kingdom of Morocco or the Socialist Republic of Viet Nam respectively and making an investment in the territory of the other Contracting Party;

widely exchanged in principal international exchange markets.

ARTICLE 2
PROMOTION AND PROTECTION OF INVESTMENTS

1. Each Contracting Party shall in its territory encourage investments by investors of the other Contracting Party and shall admit such investments in accordance with its laws and regulations.

Extension, modification or transformation of an investment, made in accordance with the laws and regulations in force of the Contracting Party on which territory the investment is made, is considered as a new investment.

2. Each Party shall accord to covered investments of investors of any other Party fair and equitable treatment and full protection and security.

For greater certainty:

(a) fair and equitable treatment requires each Party not to deny justice in any legal or administrative proceedings;

(b) full protection and security requires each Party to take such measures as may be reasonably necessary to ensure the protection and security of the covered investments; and

(c) the concepts of “fair and equitable treatment” and “full protection and security” do not require treatment in addition to or beyond that which is provided under the customary international law and do not create additional substantive rights.

3. Subject to its laws and regulations and in accordance with the provisions on the Most Favoured Nation treatment provided for in this Agreement, each Contracting party shall commit to ensure that the management, maintenance, use, enjoyment or disposal of investments of investors of the other Contracting Party on its territory shall not be impaired by unreasonable or discriminatory measures. Each Contracting Party shall observe any legal obligation arising out of this Agreement it may have entered into with regard to investments of investors of the other Contracting Party.

Investment returns, in case of their reinvestment in accordance with the laws and regulations of the Contracting Party on which territory investment is made, shall enjoy the same protection as the initial investment.

4. This article shall not apply to measures that have to be taken by either Contracting Party for reasons public security, order or public health or protection of environment provided that such measures are not applied in a manner which would constitute a means of arbitrary or unjustified discrimination.

TREATMENT OF INVESTMENTS

1. Each Contracting Party shall in its territory accord to investments by investors of the other Contracting Party a treatment which is not less favourable than that which it accords, in like circumstances, to investments of its own investors or to investments of the most favoured nation.

2. Each Contracting Party shall in its territory ensure to investors of the other Contracting Party, concerning the use, management, conduct, operation, and sale or other disposition of their investments, a treatment not less favourable than that which it accords, in like circumstances, to its own investors or to investors of the most favoured nation.

3. The national treatment, as provided in paragraph (1) and (2) above, shall be accorded in accordance with the applicable laws and regulations of the host Contracting Party and in accordance with the provisions on the Most Favoured Nation treatment provided for in this Agreement. The linking of national treatment to the applicable laws and regulations of the host Contracting Party preserves the right of the host Contracting Party to apply, a treatment to investors of the other Contracting Party and their investments different than that which applies to its own investors and their investments and in accordance with the provisions on the Most Favoured Nation treatment provided for in this Agreement. In this way each Contracting Party may maintain any economic sector or activity as reserved for its own investors within the framework of its development policy.

4. The provisions of this Article shall not be construed so as to oblige one Contracting Party to extend to the investors of the other Contracting Party the benefit of any treatment, preference or privilege resulting from:

(a) any customs union, economic union, free trade area, monetary union, or other form of international, regional and bilateral economic agreement or other similar international agreement, to which either of the Contracting Parties is or may become a party;

Investments of investors of either Contracting Party in the territory of the other Contracting Party shall not be expropriated, nationalized or subject to measures having an equivalent effect (hereinafter referred to “expropriation”) except for a public purpose, in accordance with due process of law, on a non-discriminatory basis and against prompt, adequate and effective compensation.

2. Such compensation shall amount to the market value of the expropriated investment immediately before expropriation has taken place or become public knowledge whichever is the earlier.

3. Compensation shall be paid without undue delay and shall be transferable in freely usable currency. In case of a late payment, the compensation shall include interest at the rate determined by the Contracting Party on which territory the investment is made, from the due date until the date of payment.

4. The investor shall have the right to a prompt review of the legality of the administrative procedure of expropriation and the valuation of the amount of compensation by a judicial authority of the Contracting Party making the expropriation.

COMPENSATION FOR LOSSES

Investors of one of the Contracting Parties whose investments suffer damages or losses owing to war or any other armed conflict, revolution, a state of national emergency, riot, revolt or other similar events in the territory of the other Contracting Party, shall be accorded by the latter Contracting Party a non discriminatory treatment which is at least equal to that accorded to its own investors or to investors of the most favoured nation, whichever is more favourable, as regards to restitutions, compensations, indemnifications or other settlements.

ARTICLE 6
TRANSFER OF PAYMENTS

1. Each Contracting Party shall permit to investors of the other Contracting Party, after discharging of their tax obligations, to transfer payments related to their investments. Such transfers shall be made, without undue delay, in convertible currency and shall include, in particular, but not exclusively:

   a) a capital or an additional amount aiming to maintain or increase an investment;

   d) proceeds from the total or partial liquidation of an investment;

   a) in the event of serious balance of payments and external financial difficulties or threat thereof; or
   b) in cases where, in exceptional circumstances, movements of capital cause or threaten to cause serious difficulties for macroeconomic management, in particular monetary and exchange rate policies; or
   c) to protect the rights of creditors.
4. Measures referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article shall:

a) not exceed those necessary to deal with the circumstances set out in paragraph 3 of this Article;

b) be temporary and shall be eliminated as soon as conditions permit it; and

c) be promptly notified to the other Contracting Party.

SUBROGATION

1. If under a legal or contractual guarantee covering non-commercial risks of investments, indemnities are paid to an investor of one of the Contracting Parties, the other Contracting Party recognize the subrogation of the insurer in the rights of the indemnified investor.

2. According to the guarantee given to the concerned investment, the insurer shall be entitled to claim all the rights that the investor might exercise if those rights had not been subrogated to the insurer.
